From the Pastor

Over seventy people turned out Sunday night for our discussion of the Sustainable Youth Ministry proposal. Later this week the Youth Search Committee will meet and consider everything they heard.

It was encouraging to see so many people of all ages. We met in small groups, so that everyone would be more encouraged to talk, and then we shared our concerns in the larger group. The discussion was spirited, challenging, and hopeful. People felt free to voice serious concerns, and to express support.

I dreaded church meetings as a child, but I now think they are one of the most interesting things we do. We are at our best when we are listening to one another, including people with whom we might disagree. We are at our best when we yield to one another in an effort to discern the Holy Spirit. We are at our best when we come expecting to hear truth and wisdom from our neighbors.

I also think we have witnessed leadership at its best from Hal Lee and the Youth Ministry Team. Here's a small committee trying to help a church face a creative challenge. They have stirred up a challenge they think we need to face, and they have done it with a combination of care and courage.

I do not know what will come of all this, but I know it is a good day to be part of Northside Baptist Church. Please continue to pray for our church.

Grace and Peace,
Stan
